Augustina Ullman

RESEARCH ADMINISTRATOR

Augustina Ullman serves as the research administrator at the Public Policy Institute of California. She supports research administration and operations across PPIC's largest department, working closely with researchers and other administrators to execute functions such as budget-tracking, impact and assessment processes, and development activities. Before joining PPIC, she worked as a policy assistant at SPUR, where she supported SPUR's housing research and advocacy across the Bay Area. She holds a bachelor's degree in urban planning from the University of California, Berkeley.
