Californians and Their Government

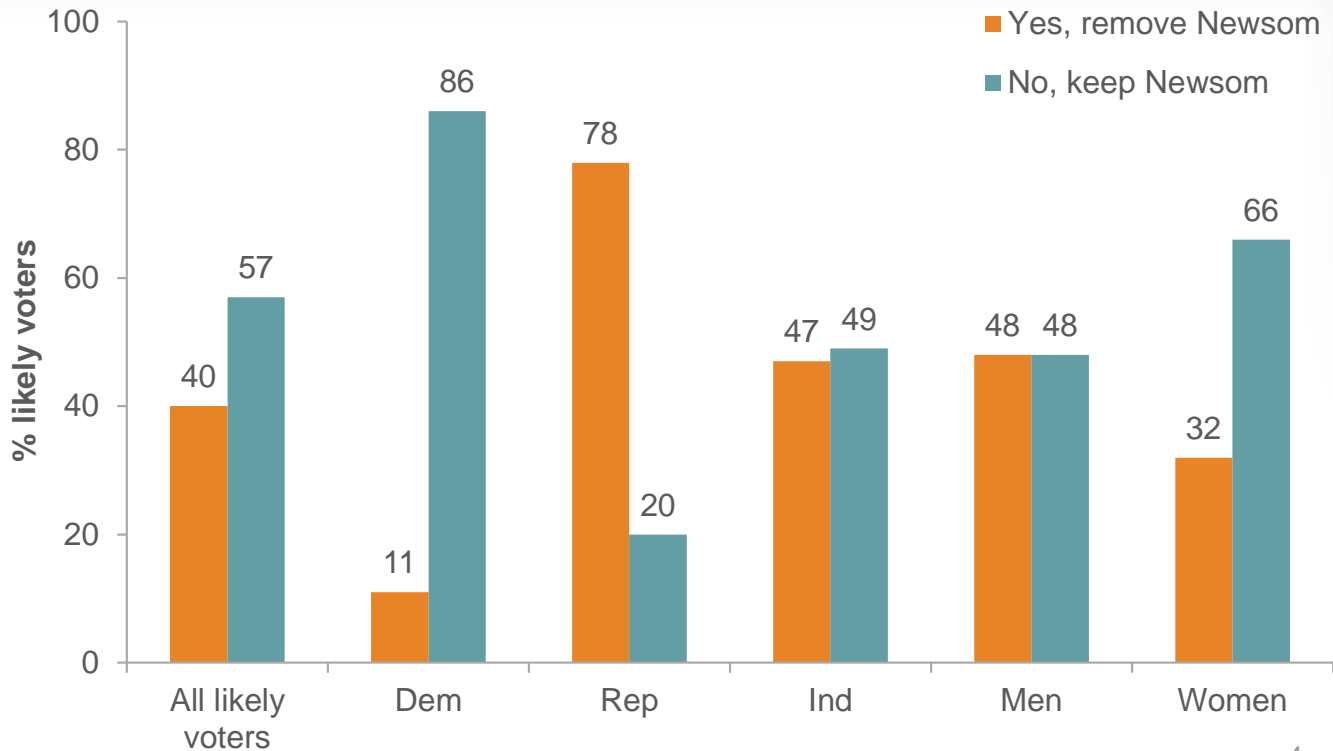

- PPIC Survey series on state and national issues since 1999
- Public perceptions, attitudes, and policy preferences
- Telephone interviews, May 9–18, 2021
 - 75% cell phone, 25% landline
 - 1,705 adults, $\pm 3.2\%$ margin of error
 - 1,074 likely voters, $\pm 4.2\%$ margin of error

Approval of state elected officials has been steady

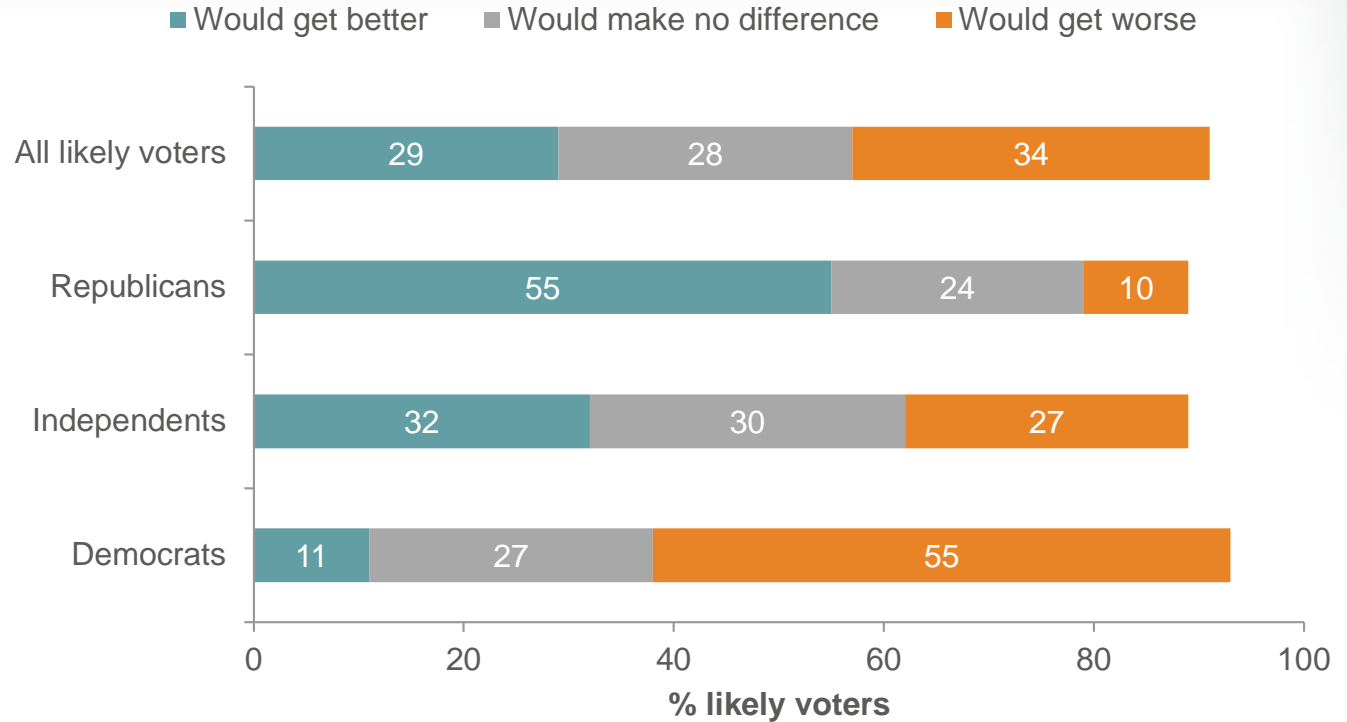

Support for a recall of Governor Newsom remains partisan

If a special election to recall Governor Newsom were held today, would you vote yes to remove Newsom as governor or no to keep Newsom as governor?

Opinions vary on how a recall would affect California

If Governor Newsom is recalled from office, do you think things in California would get better, would get worse, or would it make no difference?

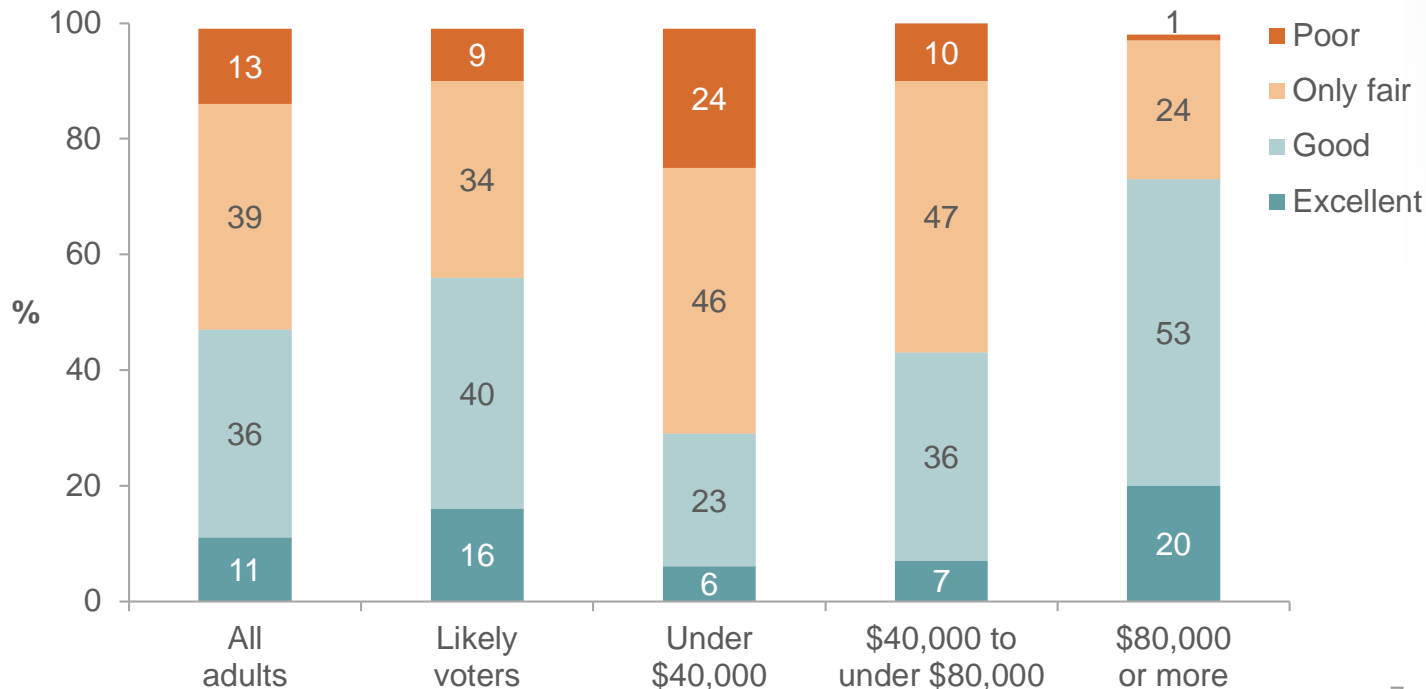

Fewer Californians say the state budget situation is a big problem

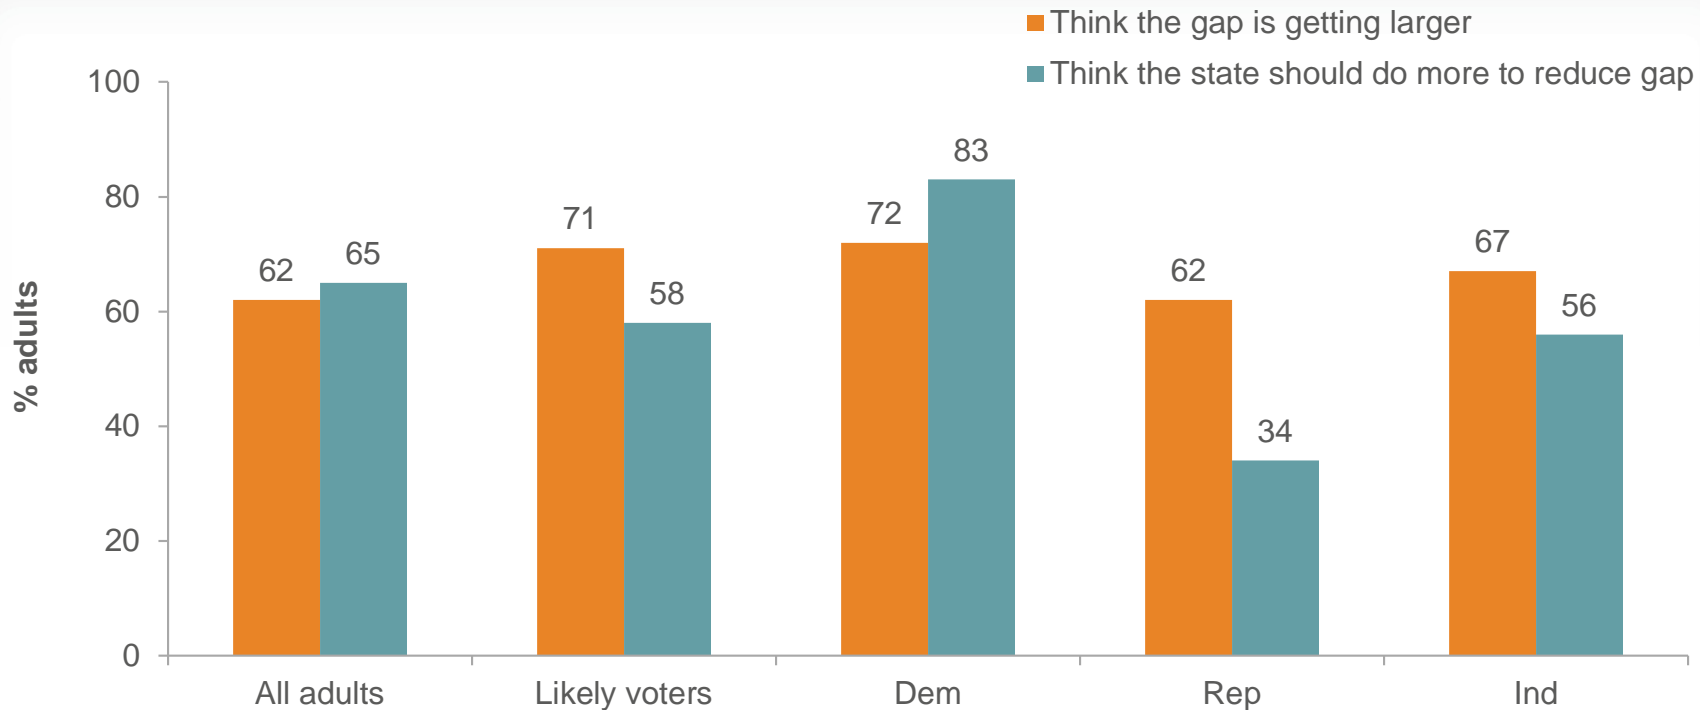

Income affects how Californians see their personal financial situation

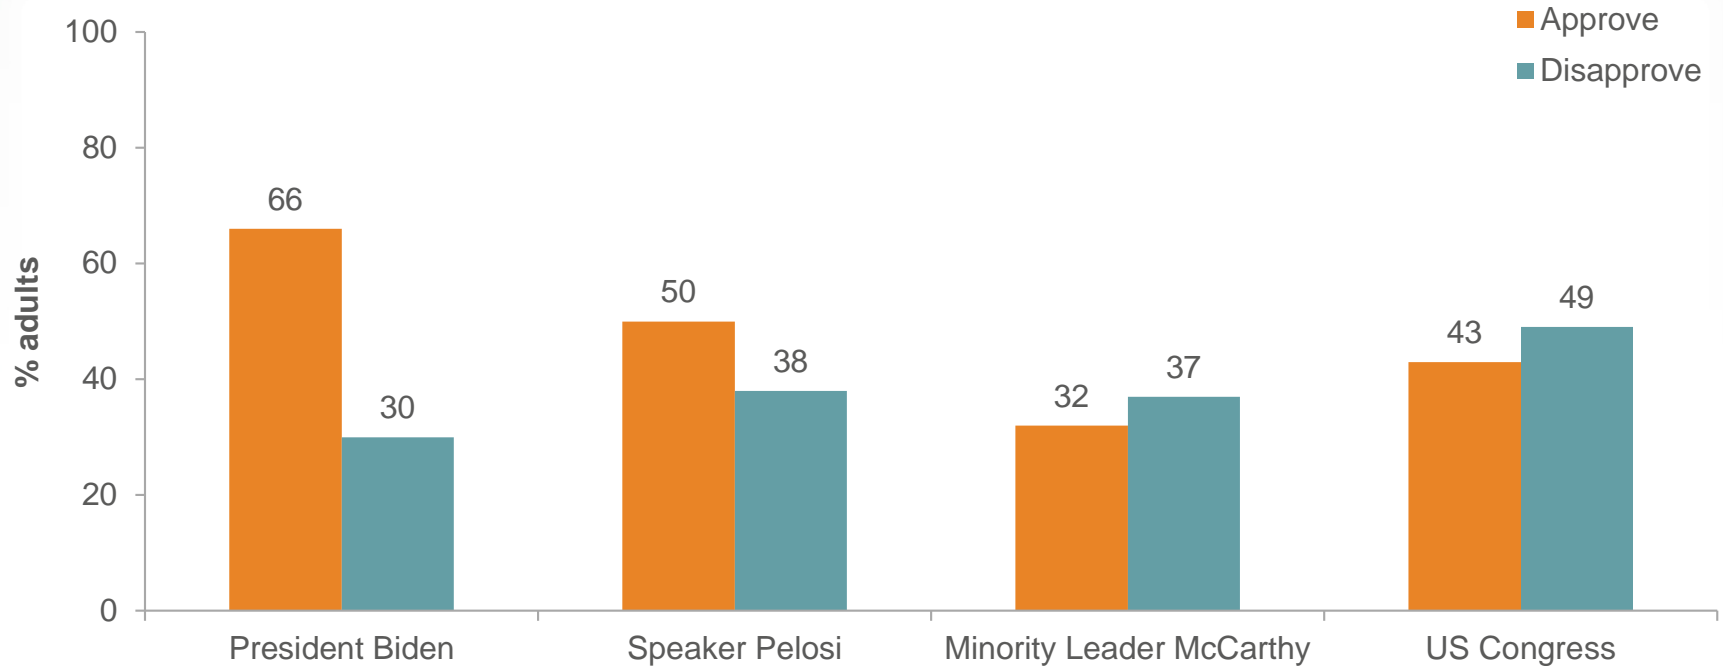

Would you say you are in excellent shape, good shape, only fair shape, or poor shape financially?

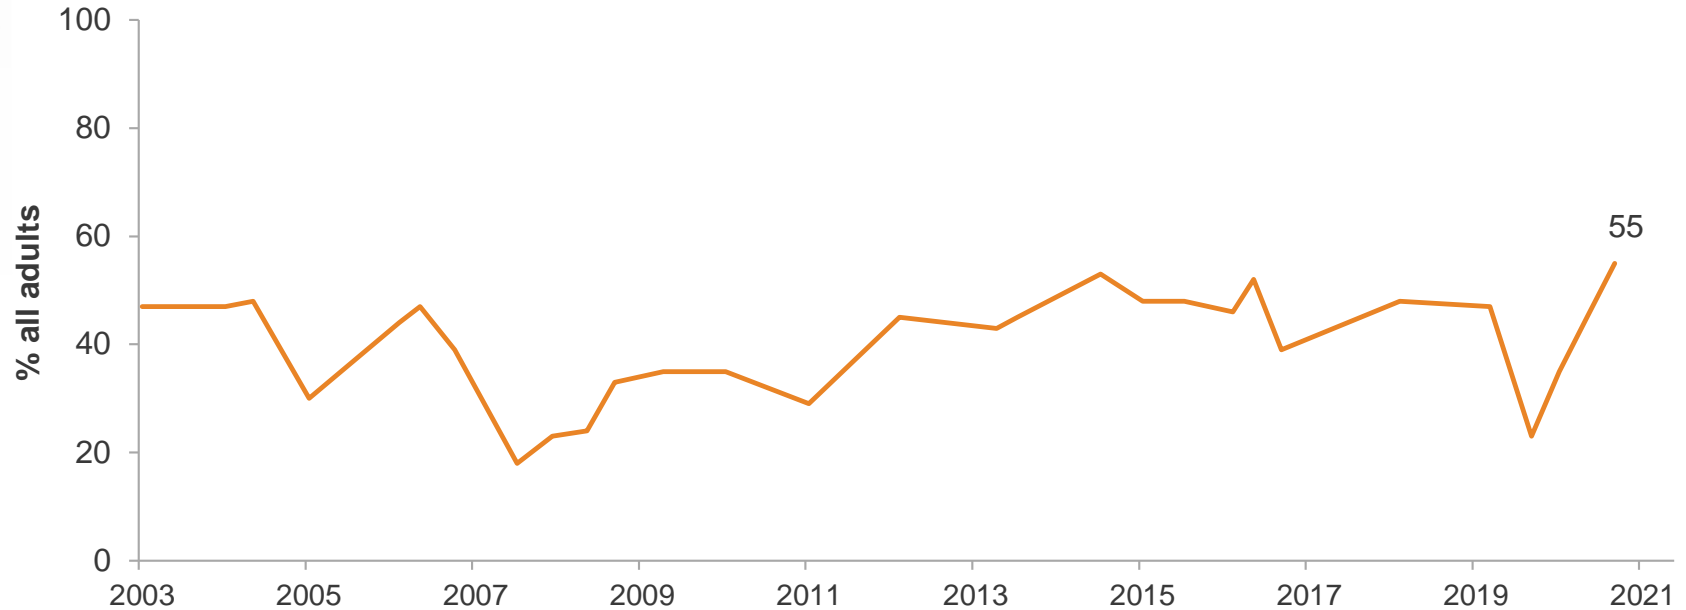

Most Californians see the gap between rich and poor widening

Californians have mixed views of federal elected officials

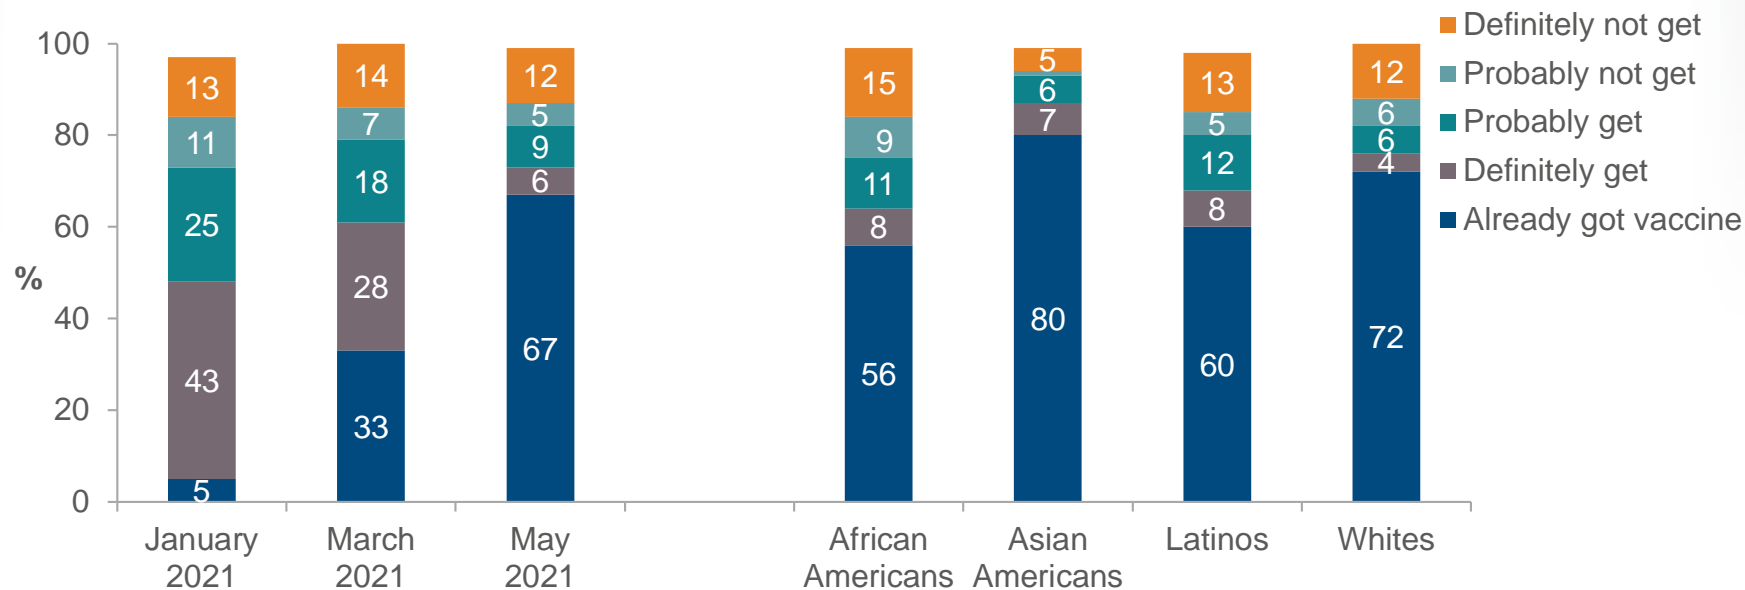

More Californians expect good times financially in the US during next 12 months

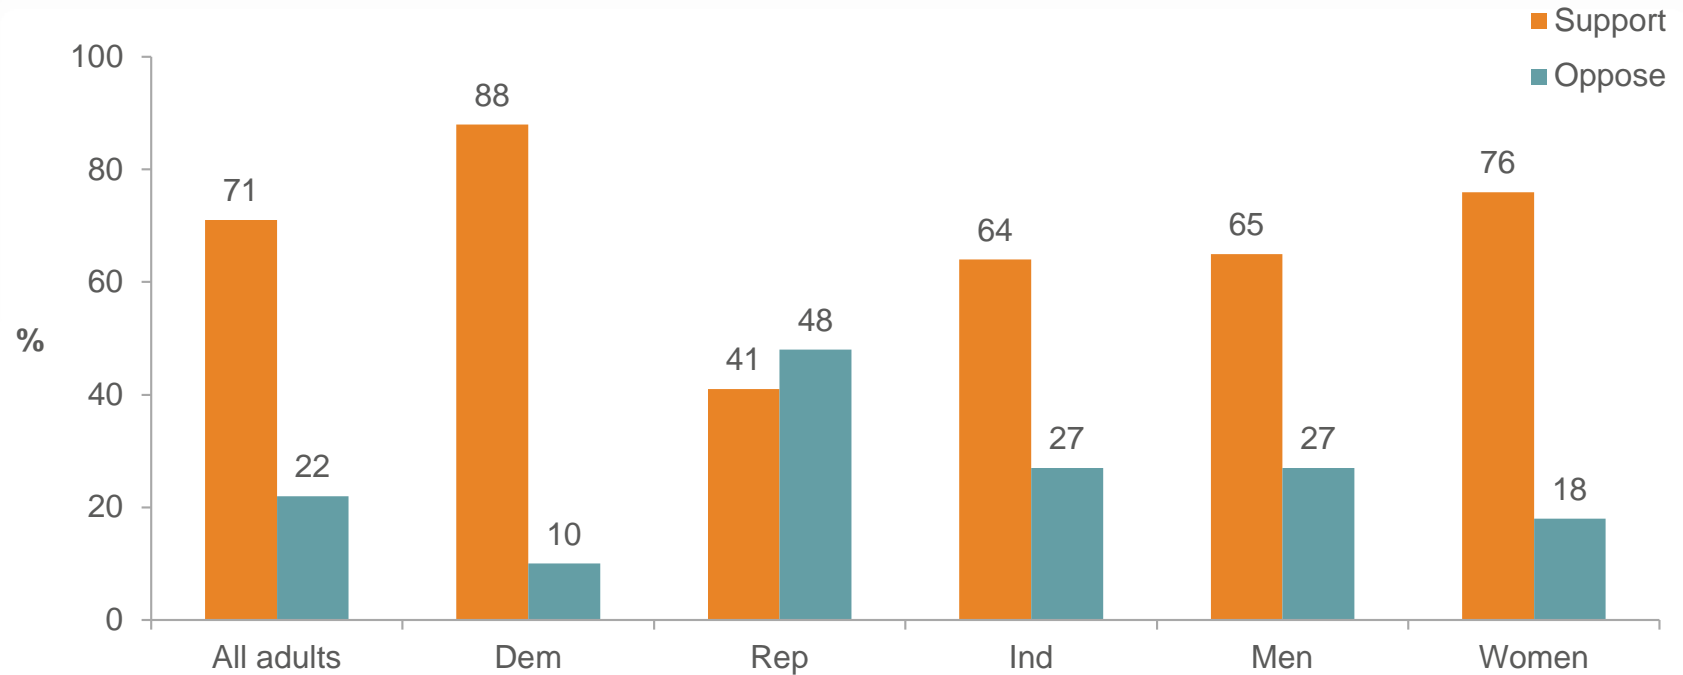

Some groups remain hesitant about getting the COVID-19 vaccine

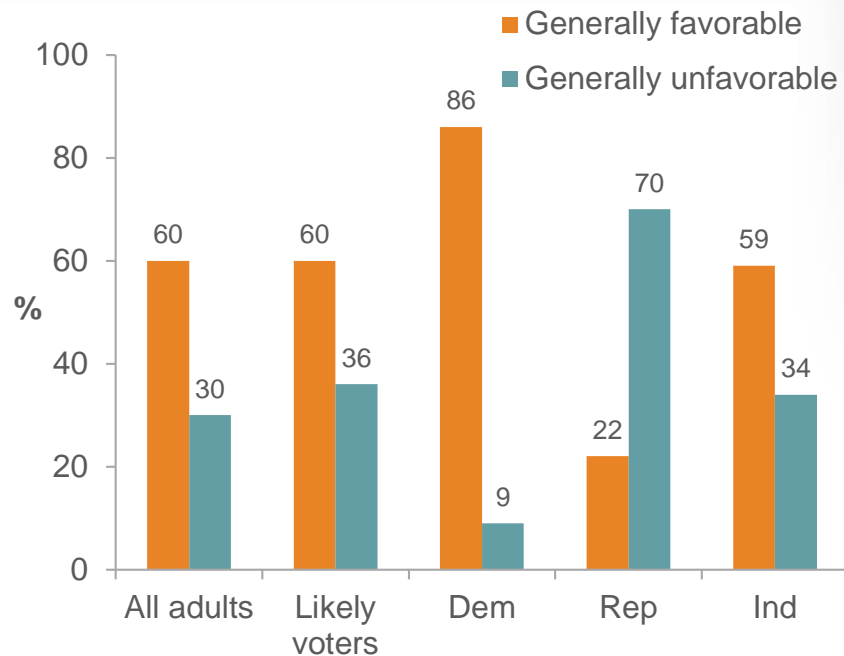

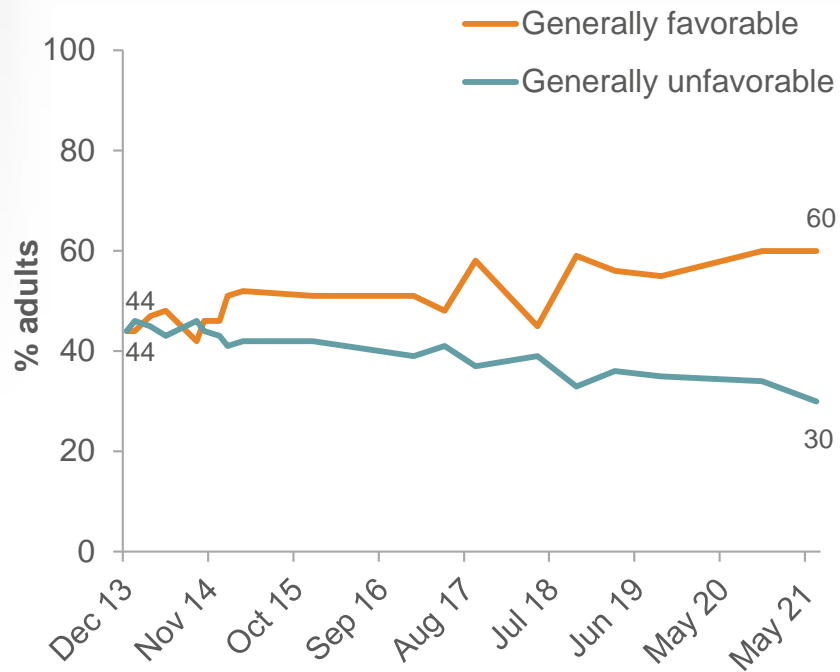

When it becomes available to you, will you definitely get the vaccine, probably get it, probably not get it, or definitely not get it?

A majority of Californians support the 2021 Equality Act

A majority of Californians favor the Affordable Care Act

Other Topics

- Top issues facing people in California today
- Support for stimulus checks and rent and utility assistance
- Concern about getting the coronavirus
- Rating of state's vaccine distribution
